Position Title: Drama & Communications Teacher

Reports to: Principal

General Description:

Northside Christian School is seeking a passionate and dedicated individual to join our faculty as a Part-Time Drama and Communications Teacher for the high school (and possibly Middle School) level. The ideal candidate will possess a strong background in drama, communication, and theatre arts, and have a heart for teaching and mentoring students in the context of a Christian school. This role includes the opportunity to direct and oversee student theatrical productions, fostering creativity, teamwork, and personal growth in a supportive and faith-based environment.

Qualifications:

- Spiritual:
 - Must be born-again and able to give a personal testimony of faith in Jesus Christ.
 - Must be a member of and actively involved at a like-minded local church.
- Personal:
 - Must be in agreement with and sign a NCS Life-Style Agreement
 - Must demonstrate an ability to work well and appropriately with other staff members, parents, and students
 - Must have a desire to help students abide by the rules of NCS while being focused on our mission – to help them better learn, love, and live Jesus Christ
- Professional:
 - Must be self-motivated, well organized, and have a strong work ethic.
 - Must communicate well with the principal with any questions/concerns to ensure that all members of the administrative team are well-informed.
 - Must attend all required meetings, professional development, and events/activities.
- Documentation:
 - Must pass an FBI/BCI background check
 - Must be a citizen of the USA
 - Must hold certifications in CPR, First Aid, and AED
 - Must be competent in the use of Microsoft Office Products
 - Must hold a Child Safety Certificate
 - Must hold a Bloodborne Pathogen Training Certificate
 - Must hold an associate or bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university

Key Responsibilities: (not limited to the following)

- Teaching:
 - Plan and deliver engaging drama and communication lessons that promote creativity, self-expression, and effective communication skills in students.
 - Teach courses in Drama, Public Speaking, Debate, and/or other communication-related subjects.
 - Incorporate biblical worldview principles in the curriculum, connecting the arts and communication to the teachings of Scripture.
 - Assess student progress and provide constructive feedback to foster both academic and personal development.
- Theatrical Production Direction:
 - Lead and direct the high school's annual theatrical production, including play selection, casting, rehearsals, and performance.
 - Oversee all aspects of the production, such as set design, costumes, lighting, and sound, in collaboration with students and staff.
 - Foster a positive, collaborative, and respectful atmosphere throughout the production process.
 - Encourage students to explore their talents and spiritual gifts through performance and creative expression.
- Student Development:
 - Mentor students in the development of their public speaking and acting skills, promoting confidence, leadership, and teamwork.
 - Support students in understanding the significance of the arts as a form of ministry and self-expression, in alignment with a biblical worldview.
- Community Engagement:
 - Build relationships with students and parents, offering support and encouragement in both their academic and spiritual journeys.
 - Attend faculty meetings and collaborate with other staff members to foster an integrated approach to student development.
